

Oregon Quarter Horse Novice Championship Qualifying:

STATE POINT SYSTEM – Any novice member planning to attend the Novice Championship Show will need fill out a declaration form by March 1 of the qualifying year and be an OQHA member by February 1st. The declaration is for the novice member. Multiple horses may be declared on one form. The three (3) contestants in each novice class who accumulates the most points from the OQHA approved shows within the State of Oregon from January 1 through June 30 of each year shall be eligible to represent Oregon at the Novice Championship show. The classes to be represented are the classes listed specifically as Novice classes: Halter, Western Riding, Showmanship, Horsemanship, Western Pleasure, Hunter under Saddle, Hunt Seat Equitation, Trail, Barrel Racing, Pole Bending and Reining classes. Anyone wishing to participate at the Novice Championship show in any classes not listed here, must petition the OQHA Board of Directors.

AQHA Novice Championship Show State Qualifying

1. The Novice classes will be the novice championship show qualifying classes. Please enter the novice class (youth or Amateur) if you are competing for qualifying points.
2. Any novice member planning to attend the novice championship show will need to declare by March 1. The declaration is for the novice member. Multiple horses may be declared on one form. Please list classes with the correct horse.

Anyone interested in attending the Novice Championship show should sign up. Signing up does NOT insure you a spot on the novice championship show team nor are you making a firm commitment to attend the novice championship show. The OQHA Board will be given discretion in deciding a members eligibility if they did not sign up by March 1.
